

From: William Rivas
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/18/02 1:06am
Subject: Microsoft

It is imperative that the Department of Justice NOT accept Microsoft's proposed settlement. It is anti competitive and will only ensure Microsoft yet a greater control of the software world. Companies like Apple would be diluted even further by acceptance of the proposed settlement by allowing Microsoft to implement 1 billion dollars worth of computers to the poor schools. Apple will be hit hard by such a move.

--

William Rivas
proventserv@earthlink.net
United We Stand